Disclaimer

The rows we've received for this series will not be of the same quality as our other releases. It's unfortunate, however we'll have to make do with these until we can obtain higher quality rows. For now we'll try to make them look as clean as possible with the intent of purchasing and scanning our own rows in the future. Thanks to patrons & donors, it won't be too long before we can have some quality control over the rows we use.

Please support the mangaka by purchasing your own copies of their work when it becomes available in your area!
